

I. Water Storage For Firefighting Purposes:

New development shall be required to meet the minimum water storage requirements for firefighting purposes as established by the appropriate fire district.